

French

Year 5

Intercultural Understanding

I can respect and understand cultural diversity and I understand how symbols, pictures and objects can represent a country.

Listening

I can follow a story or song in another language.

I can listen carefully to understand more complex words and phrases.

I can respond and follow instructions in another language and understand praise words.

I can understand the main points in a short spoken text.

Reading

I can take a chance and make a guess even if I am uncertain.

I can understand most of the points in a short piece of clear written text.

I can use my inference and deduction skills to elicit meaning of a given text.

Speaking

I can ask and respond to questions about myself and my interests.

I can begin to use appropriate intonation and expression to sound more authentic.

I can begin to use more complex phrases and sentences.

I can start to use 'and' and 'but' to join my sentences.

Writing

I can add simple connectives to my writing in another language.

I can begin to understand that word order may be different.

I can independently use a word bank or dictionary.

I can write sentences using expressions and phrases I have already learned.