

Geography

Year 6

Geographical skills and fieldwork

I can use fieldwork to observe, measure and record human and physical features.

I can use maps, atlases, globes and digital computer mapping.

I can use OS keys.

I can use six figure grid references.

I can use sketch maps, plans, graphs and digital technology in my fieldwork.

I can use the eight points of a compass.

Human and Physical Geography

I can describe the distribution of natural resources.

I can describe types of settlement and land use.

I can understand biomes and vegetation belts.

I can understand climate zones.

I can understand the processes of economic activity including trade links.

I can understand the processes of rivers and mountains.

I can understand the processes of volcanoes and earthquakes.

Location Knowledge

I can describe and locate the physical, human and political geography of the UK.

I can locate the main countries of Europe including Russia.

I can locate the main countries of North & South America.

I can locate the main countries of the world.

I can place the key cities in the areas of the world I have studied.

I can understand and recognise the position of latitude (incl. named lines) and longitude, hemisphere & time zones.

I can understand the key physical, human & environmental aspects of the Americas region I am studying.

I can understand the key physical, human & environmental aspects of the European region I am studying.

I can understand the key physical, human & environmental aspects of the world region I am studying.

Place Knowledge

I can understand geographical similarities and differences; physical & human; of a region of Europe.

I can understand geographical similarities and differences; physical & human; of a region of North or South America.

I can understand geographical similarities and differences; physical & human; of a region of the UK.