

Religious education

Year 1

I can describe the actions of a person in a faith story.

I know that we are all special yet different.

I can recall religious stories that show the value of the individual.

I can say why I think special people in faith stories are different from others.

I can talk about what makes me and other people special.

I appreciate there are special places that need treating with care.

I can recall a faith story about new life.

I can retell a creation story.

I can understand that we all have a part to play in keeping the world a special place.

I can begin to understand that special places are not all the same.

I can identify the features that make a place of worship special.

I can say what makes a place of worship special to those who go there.

I can talk about a special place I have visited and say what happens there.
